PENNSYLVANIA
THE GREAT AMERICAN GETAWAY

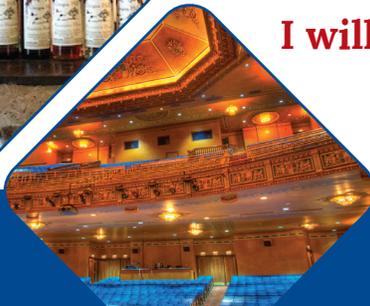

WELCOME TO LYCOMING COUNTY!

We welcome you to Lycoming County, Pennsylvania! I am Lyco the Lumberjack, and I am happy to be your guide. I proudly represent the rich logging heritage that surrounds Lycoming County and neighboring communities, and I am excited to show you around our diverse landscapes full of cultural and historical landmarks. Find fun for the entire family within Lycoming County's borders with outdoor adventures, cultural hotspots, and delicious regional cuisines. Whether you are planning a day trip with your favorite pals or are looking for a lengthier getaway, Lycoming County has everything you could need. Spanning from Williamsport and Waterville to Muncy and Morris, you can always find something new to do or see. So, let's start planning your perfect trip today!

I will be with you every step of the way.

SEMIQUINCENTENNIAL CELEBRATIONS

As the United States celebrates its semiquincentennial in 2026, commemorating the signing of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, we encourage you to explore new areas of the country, including Lycoming County. Learn about the role Lycoming County played in our nation's development, and embrace the cultural traditions that make our area special. We welcome you to our area as we celebrate the 250th anniversary of our nation.

PLAN YOUR DREAM GETAWAY TODAY!

The Lycoming County Visitors Centers sits in the heart of downtown Williamsport surrounded by many community staples like Gustonian Gifts, Otto Bookstore, and the Bullfrog Brewery. Stop in for guidance from the Visitors Center staff, who will help you enhance your visit to Lycoming County with one recommendation at a time.

If you would like more information about local opportunities, follow the Lycoming County Visitors Bureau on social media.

NOW LET'S HAVE SOME FUN!

BASEBALL

IF YOU LOVE BASEBALL, LYCOMING COUNTY IS THE PLACE TO BE.

While in Williamsport, take yourself out to a ballgame with some peanuts and Cracker Jacks. Here, baseball is our favorite pastime. When people from across the globe hear the word "Williamsport," they likely will think of Little League® Baseball. Why? Because we are the Home of Little League® Baseball.

All eyes turn to Williamsport every August for the Little League® Baseball World Series, where 20 teams vie to be named the Little League® World Champions. Thousands flock to the area to watch the 10 American and 10 international teams compete for the coveted title. Carl Stotz founded Little League® in Williamsport in 1939. Since its founding, Little League® has grown into the world's largest youth organized sports organization. Plan to make a pit stop at the World of Little League® Museum to learn about the history of Little League®. Follow the Bases Loaded statue trail throughout Williamsport for numerous photo opportunities. Kick off the Little League® Baseball World Series with over 40,000 baseball enthusiasts at the Grand Slam Parade that progresses through downtown Williamsport. Plan to stay a while for all the fun! Attend the Williamsport Welcomes the World block party before championship weekend with dozens of street vendors and entertainment.

Watch the Williamsport Crosscutters run the bases at Journey Bank Ballpark at Historic Bowman Field. Maybe you will see the next Major League Baseball Hall of Famer because the Williamsport Crosscutters are part of the MLB Draft League.

New to Lycoming County in 2026, the area welcomes the Williamsport Lumber Yards as a go-to spot for tournaments, competition, and fun for baseball and softball enthusiasts alike. The Williamsport Lumber Yards will welcome a projected 500,000 attendees per year for unforgettable game-day experiences. This premier 28-acre baseball and softball complex has been designed to elevate the region's thriving sports tourism economy, welcoming newcomers to our family-friendly community. Watch a game on one of the seven lighted turf fields, including two collegiate fields where the Pennsylvania College of Technology baseball and softball teams are expected to call home. Bring your family to enjoy the hospitality hub with a playground and concession area.

OUTDOOR ADVENTURES

Channel your inner adventurer and scale the Appalachian Mountains on Lycoming County's many nature trails. Try your hand at the Old Loggers Path or Jacoby Falls for an immersive experience in nature. Ready your bike for a beautiful ride along the Pine Creek Rail Trail, as you embark through the Pennsylvania Wilds for recreation and relaxation. Make sure to add Rider Park to your outdoor agenda for family friendly trails and beautiful vistas. Cast your reels along any of Lycoming County's waterways and enjoy a nice day fishing. Hop into the water with your kayak or canoe at Little Pine State Park or Rose Valley Lake, where the fresh air and splendid scenery will rejuvenate you. In the fall and winter, Lycoming County proves to be abundant with a wide range of activities – from hunting on the local game lands to cross country skiing along nearby trails. We have something for everyone from the most avid outdoor lovers to the casual nature appreciators.

HISTORY

LET'S TAKE THIS TRIP BACK IN TIME!

Did you know that Lycoming County was known as the "Lumber Capital of the World" in the 1800s? Williamsport had more millionaires per capita than any where else in the world. You can be immersed in this history, traveling through time to the days of horse-and-buggy rides and logging along the Susquehanna River.

- Explore Lycoming County's rich lumber history with a stroll down Millionaires' Row in Williamsport's Historic District.
- Board the Hiawatha Paddlewheel Riverboat for a relaxing ride along the Susquehanna River's West Branch, listening to stories about the waterway's role in lumber production.
- Plan your visit to the Taber Museum to view the Shempp Model Train Exhibit and learn about Williamsport's role in the lumber industry.
- Head to Muncy to walk the Heritage Park Nature Trail, which was once a bustling hub of the West Branch Canal industry in the 1800s.

Not only does Lycoming County have a proud past, but the area also has an exciting future full of new developments and vibrant communities.

ATTRACTIONS

Welcome back, travel friends! Lycoming County offers engaging attractions for all ages. Calling all history buffs, visit Lycoming County's informative museums or iconic historic sites! Craft beer and wine enthusiasts can wander through our fantastic microbreweries, wineries, and distilleries. Sample the house-made cocktails and brews and find new favorites right in north central Pennsylvania.

Engage with nature's creatures – both big and small – at Clyde Peelings Reptiland in Allenwood. You are bound to see an unbelievable exhibit at this world-class specialized zoo. After this unparalleled adventure, you can head to Muncy and enjoy the fruits of classic agriculture at the Today Farm.

Arts lovers can rejoice in attending a performance at the Journey Bank Community Arts Center in downtown Williamsport, which maintains a steady lineup of lively productions.

Create your own masterpieces at local art studios like Centered Earth in Muncy, where ideas are transformed into reality.

Gather your friends for a night at the Kaos Fun Zone for a state-of-the-art laser tag tournament or game of bowling. Try your hand in the arcade, aiming for the jackpot prize!

If you're looking for a destination rooted in fun, Lycoming County is where you want to be!

If you are planning a getaway to Lycoming County, you must be sure to explore downtown Williamsport.

- Head to Pine Square for live music, festivals and special events that will keep your spirits high and bellies full.
- Roam through Williamsport on a seasonal First Friday celebration, where you will be met with fine arts, high-quality shops and flavorful dining options.
- Rise bright and early on Saturday mornings to check out the Williamsport Farmers Market, stocked with farm-fresh goods and kitchen staples.

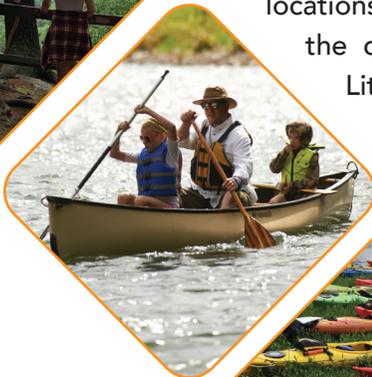

OUTDOORS

Who here likes the great outdoors? Like many of you, so do I as a lumberjack.

As part of the Pennsylvania Wilds, Lycoming County serves as the home for spectacular outdoor experiences, showcasing many of the once-in-a-lifetime opportunities that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has to offer.

Splash into our waterways for an aquatic adventure. Whether you enjoy fishing, kayaking, canoeing, or swimming, we have a water landscape perfect for the activity, including the Susquehanna River, Pine Creek, and Loyalsock Creek. Just make sure to follow our local permit policies.

Stop and stare at our breathtaking views and vistas while hiking along the Jacoby Falls Trail, Old Loggers Path and the Pine Creek Rail Trail. As fall brushes into the region, watch as the mountains transform into a sea of reds, crimsons, and yellows, creating a warm glow that will make you feel refreshed and energized. Our state forests and local parks continue to be central locations for biking, camping and hunting. Escape the demands of work and school, heading to Little Pine State Park or Rider Park for the day. Check out visitlycomingcounty.com for up-to-date listings about our local sporting and outdoor activities. Make your trip memorable by incorporating everything that we have to offer.

Experience  Little League Year-Round

Interactive Museum | Flagship Store

EVENTS

PLAN YOUR VACATION AROUND ONE OF OUR FANTASTIC EVENTS!

You can visit Lycoming County any time throughout the year and have a memorable experience that will make you want to come back for more.

You can also plan your trip around an event that sparks your interest.

If you enjoy watching baseball on TV, enjoy the sport at its finest at the Little League® Baseball World Series in August, where you will be surrounded by international sports enthusiasts brought together by a common love for the game.

Williamsport provides a charming Victorian Christmas experience that will skyrocket your holiday cheer as you're surrounded by historic relics and heartfelt spirit. Plan a visit to ride on the Santa Express or enjoy the Tour of Lights, singing jolly Christmas jingles.

Our area also offers niche festivals and shows that will have you counting down the days until your visit, including the Annual Apple Butter Festival in Waterville and the Ways Garden Art Show in Williamsport. Make sure to visit Jersey Shore for their Town Meeting in July. It is a true celebration of the birth of our nation, now celebrating our 250th Semiquincentennial year!

From First Fridays in Williamsport and Fourth Fridays in Muncy, Lycoming County's calendar of events remains booked throughout the year.

Our community is continuously adding new events. Check the Visitors Bureau website, visitycomingcounty.com, for new date listings.
